Visitation of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Through the courtesy of the Rev. R. P. Williams, of Trinity Church, Washington, one of the members of the committee of the diocese of Washington on the entertainment and services in connection with the Archbishop of Canterbury's visit to this city, invitations were sent to the professors of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, and their families and to the students to attend the reception tendered the Archbishop by the Churchman's League, held in the Corcoran Art Gallery on Saturday evening last. The professors of the seminary were also specially invited to be present at the great open air service yesterday in the Cathedral Close, Washington, and with other visiting clergy to wear their robes and march in the procession. All the professors were present, the following being in the procession: Professors Green, Massie and Wallis. Excellent seats on the platform were assigned them where the whole service, the sermon of Bishop Doane and the address of the Archbishop could be distinctly heard. No services were held at the Seminary Chapel on Sunday afternoon so that all could have an opportunity to attend the service in Washington. Most of the students were present as well as Dr. Blackford, of the High School, and others from the Hill.

In response to an invitation sent to the Archbishop of Canterbury to visit the Seminary by Prof. Wallis on behalf of the faculty, the following cordial letter regretting that he could not do so was written by the Archbishop:

My Dear Sir:—I have today received through Bishop Potter your very kind letter of August 25th, and I need hardly assure you how great would have been my pleasure had it been practicable for me to accept the invitation you give me to pay a visit to the Seminary at Alexandria. I am afraid, however, that it is not in my power to do this, as every moment is already filled up during the very short period of my possible stay in Washington. Indeed, I am at a loss to know how to fulfill all the engagements already made. I take the deepest interest in the various theological seminaries in the United States, and to visit Alexandria would have been both pleasant and profitable. I regret greatly that it is impracticable.

I am, yours very truly,

RANDALL CANTUAR.

Some readers of the Gazette may not know that the customary signature of the English archbishops and bishops is the Christian name of each connected with the Latin name (generally contracted) of the see to which he belongs. The visit of the archbishop to this country and to Washington was naturally an object of great interest to all at the Seminary and he made a most pleasant impression upon all from the Seminary who met and heard him.

Assaulted by a Negro.

Rowland White, colored, who says that he is from Manassas, was arrested Saturday night and locked up at police headquarters charged with an assault upon George E. Nightingill. Mr. Nightingill conducts a saloon in the southwestern part of the city, and on Saturday night White, in company with Lewis Carrington, colored, entered the place and after taking four drinks were about to leave the place without paying for the same. When Mr. Nightingill called White's attention to the fact that he had not settled, the latter asserted that he had given the proprietor ten cents. Carrington at this juncture offered to pay for the drinks, but White stopped him and laid a quarter of a dollar upon the counter. Mr. Nightingill gave White five cents change, and then told him to leave the place and not enter it again. The negro started toward the door, and in doing so applied an ugly epithet to Mr. Nightingill and invited him on the pavement for a fight. Mr. Nightingill proceeded to the door where he was knocked down by White and beaten unmercifully, and had not people in the vicinity appeared on the scene and secured the negro off he would doubtless have killed his victim. Later Officers Beach, Henderson and Sherwood arrested the assailant and locked him up. Mr. Nightingill was unable to appear this morning and the case was continued.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Allen Carter, colored, arrested by Officer Young charged with assaulting Louisa Gathright, was dismissed.

Two young women, arrested by Chief Webster and Officer Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited $5 each by failing to appear.

Three colored men, arrested by Officers Knight and Arrington charged with gambling, were fined $2 each. Another colored man, arrested by the same officers for a similar offence, was fined $1.

Roland White, colored, arrested by Officers Beach, Henderson and Sherwood charged with assaulting George E. Nightingill, had his case continued.

Daniel Ford, colored, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with violating the law requiring the separation of the races in railway cars, was fined $5.

Joseph Timbers, colored, arrested by Officers Bettis and Sherwood charged with assaulting Wm. Lightfoot with a pistol, as was also Joseph Carter, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Allen charged with being a party to the assault.

William Tobin, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with assaulting Lida Toliver, was dismissed.

Want Vitified Brick.

Property-owners on Royal street, between King and Prince, contemplate petitioning Council to pave that square with vitified brick, using granite curbing, the city to pay the cost of the improvement out of the yearly rental of $1,600 charged the electric railway company for the use of Royal street. Should this be done the four squares forming the loop of the railway will be uniform.

The electric railway company, according to the law, will pay for eight feet of the paving should the work be ordered.

In a competitive examination held at the new University of Music, Washington, D. C., Miss Marie von Unschuld, president, and Prince de Crocy, vice president, the Isabel Lenemann Scholarship was won by Miss Mildred Ficklin, a recent graduate of St. Mary's Academy, of this city.

Mrs. George Keys has gone to Huntington, Ind., where she will visit her brother; thence she will proceed to St. Louis to attend the meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Later she will visit Mexico, Mo.

Mr. R. W. Colvin, yard master of the Washington Southern Railway Company in this city, accompanied by his wife, has returned from a pleasant visit to Girard, Pa.

Mrs. O. F. Carter has returned from a visit to her mother in East Orange, N. J.

Death of Mr. C. F. Thomas.

It is reported in this city that Mr. C. F. Thomas, who was for some time the Master Mechanic for the Southern Railway in this city, died in Mexico several days ago. The deceased became Master Mechanic of the Southern Railway about ten years ago, but subsequently accepted a position with the Richmond Locomotive Works. He had recently relinquished this position and was employed by the Baldwin Locomotive Works at the time of his death. He had for some time been a sufferer from pulmonary troubles. During the time Mr. Thomas was stationed in Alexandria he materially increased the mechanical force in the Southern Railway shops. He introduced new machinery, built a new round house, power house, carpenters' shop, &c. He had many friends here who will regret to hear of his death.

River Notes.

The schooner Zephyr, which was blown ashore in Nomini creek by the recent storm, is still aground.

A sloop, punga and three flatboats, blown ashore in Nanjemoy by the same storm, remain aground.

The steamer T. V. Arrowsmith is still high and dry aground at Riverside. The schooner Sidonia Curley has been hauled out on the railway for repairs. The schooner as soon as she is launched will sail for the Rappahannock river to load a cargo of lumber for this port.

People who arrived from the lower river today report a large schooner aground in Kettle Bottom shoals. A schooner consigned to the Bryant Fertilizer Company passed in the cape a day or two ago, and it is supposed it is the vessel on the Kettle Bottoms.

Mr. Mackey Protests.

Mr. Crandall Mackey, the Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county, has announced that he intends, with the assistance of the sheriff, to keep order in Alexandria county. Recently the commanding officer at Fort Myer, Col. William M. Wallace, 15th Cavalry, found it necessary to establish a guard along the military road for the purpose of keeping enlisted men out of such places. To this action Mr. Mackey protests, and has sent a letter to Col. Wallace in which he sets forth a number of reasons why armed guards should not be stationed in front of such places.

Charges to be Investigated.

Mayor Paff will tonight at 7 o'clock examine the charges preferred by William H. Travers against Lieutenant Smith of the police force. The plaintiff, it will be remembered, last summer made formal charges of assault against the lieutenant, alleging that the latter interfered with his private business and assaulted him. The Police Commissioners at their meeting last week turned the matter over to the Mayor for investigation.

School Permits.

The Clerk of the City School Board today issued 37 permits to children to attend the public schools—4 to white boys, 11 to white girls, 13 to colored boys and 9 to colored girls.

Thirteen little girls under the constitutional age of seven, who had been admitted to the school under a misapprehension, were dropped from the rolls on Friday evening. It is understood that others under age will also be dropped.

Yesterday.

The weather yesterday was warm, in marked contrast to that of last week, when fires were requisite. The day was quiet throughout. Many Alexandrians went to Washington in the afternoon to hear the discourse of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The churches in this city had average congregations at both the morning and night services.

Tampering with Seals.

Officers Roberts and Henderson answered a hurry call yesterday evening to Seminary station, west of this city, where it was alleged the watchman had seen three men tampering with the seals of railway cars. The men made their escape before the officers reached the scene.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease, and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Gigantic Mills in Ashes.

Loss that will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars was suffered by fire at the Bethlehem, Pa., Steel Works last night. The big structural building that covered three acres; paint shops, car barns, carpenter and pattern shops, were burnt to the ground. Sparks from "a kicking" furnace while a casting was being made was carried by high winds to the paint shops. All the buildings from the ordnance plant to the steel mill are in ashes, the former being saved by firemen. The steel mill was damaged. No official will give an estimate of the loss now, but it must be over $300,000, for one compound engine that was destroyed cost $150,000. Other very costly machinery, blue print, etc., shared the fate of the burned buildings.

It is said that Colonel David Henderson, of Iowa, ex-speaker of the national House of Representatives, will never re-enter political or public life. He is in failing health and is suffering from an old wound received in the civil war.
